Hosanna to the King

The next day the great crowd that had come for the festival heard that Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem. They took palm branches and went out to meet him, shouting, “Hosanna!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” “Blessed is the king of Israel!” John 12:18

PALM SUNDAY

When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a colt, it was the first time since raising Lazarus from the dead that he'd come to the city. The story of Lazarus's resurrection had spread so that many regarded Jesus as a celebrity. Everyone wanted to catch a glimpse. They went out to meet him and received him like a King, because they heard he had done this. Jesus said Lazarus's death would end in the faith of many, and in the “glory of God—that the Son of God may be glorified through it” (John 11:4).

As he rode into Jerusalem, the people cried, “Your King is coming!” They praised his victory over Lazarus's death. But the irony was that he wasn't coming to claim his crown on account of Lazarus's death and resurrection, but because of his own at the end of that week. This was the week he would prepare his disciples for a new reality.

sermon discussion

- In the sermon we were challenged to live in the constant expectation of the return of Christ. How would you live differently if you knew Jesus was coming back in a week?
- Read Matthew 25:14-30. Make a list of the gifts God has entrusted to you. Now, looking at this list, what might the Lord say about your stewardship of these gifts?
- We talked about living as a servant in your relationships. How did Jesus model this for us? How is this different from what we learn in the world? How can you apply this teaching in your life?
- Read John 15:1-17. What does Jesus call us to do? What does it mean to abide in Christ? What is his promise to us if we do abide in him?
- How can you apply this sermon/readings to your life this week?
